A CHILD NARROWLY SAVED FROM DEATH-SUS- MORE GOLD ENGAGED CONDITIONALLY. PICIONS OF ARSON-A BURGLARY WHILE PO-

ve-story tenement-house No. 27 Thompsonst. was burned out at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. The first known of the fire was when Andrew Albegeri, who has a saloon on the first floor and lives on the floor above it in the rear, was awak-ened by the crackling of the flames, and, opening his bedroom door, found the entire stairway ablaze. Albegeri yelled "Fire!" and in a moment the front and rear fire-escapes of the building were crowded with men, women and children rushing out to es-

Policeman Sheridan ran to the nearest fire Policeman Sheridan ran to the nearest free box and sent out an alarm. By the time he re-turned to the tenement-house four young men— Frank Johnson, of No. 43 Canal-st.; David O'Brien, and William McLaughlin, of No. 17 Sullivan-st., and orge Latna, of No. 28 Clark-st.-were raising a ladder between the lowest fire-escape on the second floor and the street, and were helping the people down it one by one. The top floor and the front were only five families, or twenty-seven people in all, to get out. The saloon-keeper and his family, seven in number, had already reached the street by the rear fire-escape, and all the others soon were

One woman, Mrs. Raefaelo Scallassi, who lived on the third floor, "lost her head," through fright, while holding her daughter, three years old, and threw the baby down into the crowd. The child would have been killed but for the quickness of a young man named Ram, the son of the janitor of a neighboring house. Seeing the child fall, he sprang forward and caught her in his arms.

When apparently all the people had been rescued, on the second floor, and Tony Tatone ran up the ladder. The window of the room was fastened, but he smashed it in with a blow of his fist, cutting his wrist to the bone. The room was empty, and Tatone, wound was dressed and he was sent none ambulance.

A second alarm was sent out, and after an hour's hard work the firemen got the flames under control, but not before the whole house was gutted. The damage to the building and its contents amounts to about $3,500, and as the tenants were poor Italians they lost their all.

The fire evidently started on the stairway between the first and second floors. It spread so quickly that its origin is suspected to have been incendiary. The Fire Marshal will make an investigation.

Burglars, when the fire was at its height and nearly all the policemen in the neighborhood had been drawn from their posts, broke into Holler's saloon, at Spring and Mercer sts. Two suspicious-looking men, who were hastening across Broadway, were arrested and taken to the Macdougal-st, station. They said they were William Reynolds, of No. 1,342 Second-ave., and Thomas Mahony, of No. 380 Cherry-st. Reynolds is alleged to be an old offender. A "Jimmy" dropped in Prince-st, placed the officers on the right track, and investigation showed that the window of Holler's saloon had been pried open, the saloon entered and the cash register emptied. The prisoners, who had between them over $40 in money, were locked up on suspicion.

DEATH OF MRS. JANE HEALY.

old-time drygoods merchant, and the mother of the Rev. Gabriel A. Healy, pastor of St. Bernard's Roman Catholic Church, in West Fourteenth-st.; John J., Edmund J., Augustin Healy, Mrs. Thomas O'Kane and the late Dr. Thomas F. Healy, died at her summer home in Far Rockaway, Long Island, city, devoted over fifty years of her life to the ad-yancement and development of the village in which she died. Although in her eighty-second year, her mental faculties remained unimpaired until she was stricken with paralysis ten days ago. Unostentations in her charities, she was the practical friend and adviser of all who came to her in need. Her counsel was widely sought, and those who accepted and acted on her suggestions never failed to speak of her in the most kindly and admiring spirit. By her own desire the funeral services will take place at the church where she worshipped so long, St. Mary's Star of the Sea, Far Rockaway, Long Island, to-morrow morning. was stricken with paralysis ten days ago.

HE STARTED TO CLEAN OUT THR BALLROOM The employes of the Edgemere Hotel, Far Rock-away, held their annual ball on Friday night in the steam dredge Edgemere, got fighting drunk, started hand, and was promptly thrown out. There was a hackman outside the Casino, and Milne cut him with the knife. Joseph Welstead was also cut about the head and body. Mline was then arrested by Policeman Traver and held for trial.

Richard Boas, twenty-seven years old, of No. 1 West One-hundred-and-sixth-st., who was arrested Friday evening, was arraigned before Magistrate Quinn awakened him by rubbing his ears in a vio-lent manner, causing one of them to bleed. This excited him to such an extent that he did not know what he was doing, and he retaliated. He protest-ed that he was first assaulted, and that he was justified in Exciding himself, but the Magistrate held him in $400 ball for trial.

LOCAL BUSINESS TROUBLES.

A:bert G. Bushnell, doing business in novelties, printing and photo-lithographing at No. 111 Nassaust, made assignment yesterday to Vincent A. Ryan, without preference. He has been in business eighteen years. He said that the failure was the result of losses sustained by the burning of his factory in Massachusetts in 1893, and the financial panic of that year, which has since depressed his business.

The liabilities are considerably less than $10,000, and the creditors appear to be kindly disposed.

a bill of sale to a creditor whose claim was about $1,300, and the latter is selling off the stock to liquidate the account. The total liabilities of the firm date the account. The total liabilities of the firm are reported to be from $5,000 to $7,000. The business has been established several years by Mr. Bergmann, and the present firm was formed about February 1 this year. They were reported to have a capital of $5,000.

LITTLE PROBABILITY, HOWEVER, OF AN EXPORT SCARE IN WALL STREET.

There was $150,000 in gold conditionally engaged at the Sub-Treasury yesterday for export on Tuesday next, and the engagement was made with the en-nouncement that $250,000 might be required. The $1,350,000 in gold which was withdrawn on Friday was shipped to Europe yesterday by the steamship the Saale. Besides this shipment the steamship the Bourgogne sailed with $116,400 in gold, and the steamship the Aurania took $70,000, none of which, however, was withdrawn from the Sub-Treasury.

Wall Street seems to have entirely recovered from any gold export scare and little attention was paid to the prospective gold shipments next week. The head of a banking house, which has been promi-nently identified with the operations of the Government bond syndicate, is quoted as follows regarding probable gold exports:

ment bond syndicate, is quoted as follows regarding probable gold exports:

There is no season of the year when shipments of gold are more legitimate or unusual than at the present time, and it is probable that gold will go out in the thirty to forty days interval before commercial bills will be in the market in sufficient quantities. There is now, as is well known, a very large trade balence against us in favor of London. In my judgment, however, comparatively little gold will go out on account of the shipment back to this country of United States Government bonds. When the syndicate was formed arrangements were made in most cases to provide exchange against just such a contingency. I believe that comparatively few of the bonds will be shipped back to this country, especially as they are an attractive investment, and the London market for securities is practically bare of gilt-edged material. Furthermore, a great many people appear to lose sight of the fact that there is at present abroad a first-class demand for our sound railway bonds, as is evidenced by the ease with which a number of large issues by our railway companies have been absorbed in London and at other foreign financial centres. For example, the new Louisville and Nashville loan, amounting to over $6,000,000, will probably be taken up entirely in London. In the aggregate these sales of our bonds to Europe will make a considerable amount of exchange to fill the gap before the export movement of our product begins. Another feature in the situation is the reported probability of a reduction in the price of American gold by the Bank of England.

ARREST OF A BOOKKEEPER-SEVERAL THOUSAND DOLLARS SAID TO HAVE BEEN TAKEN

DISHONESTLY. George H. Rutter, of No. 185 East Ninety-fifth-st., was arrested Friday night by Detective-Sergeant Cuff on complaint of William H. Dole, a dealer in hops and mait at No. 4 Pearl-st., who charges him with forgery to the amount of several thousand dollars. The specific complaint is the forgery of $550 on the Park National Months. on the Park National Bank.

Rutter has been a bookkeeper for Dole for the left his place of business without drawing his Mr. Dole put an expert on the books, who reported with about fifty accounts. His system, it is said, was to credit accounts with less than was paid. Mr. Dole, when he went in March to Bermuda, left signed blank checks, with instructions to pay necessary bills. He asserts that Rutter drew money on several of these checks without accounting for th amounts drawn. During the last year Rutter's forgeries, it is alleged, amount to $1,000, and it is expected that more will be found. Detective Cuff says Rutter confessed to stealing the amount named. Ruter was held for examination by Magistrate Cornell in the Tombs Police Court yesterday. It was said that some time ago he was charged with defrauding A. J. Luce & Co., of No. 12 Bridge-st., out of $3,000, and had paid off all but $3,100.

LILIAN SCOPIELD AGAIN IN COURT.

SHE APPEARS AS COMPLAINANT IN A CASE OF ALLEGED ASSAULT. A woman appeared in Yorkville Court yesterday

under the name of Mrs. Lilian Landsmere, a widow as complainant against an electrician named John thirty-two years old, of No. 120 West has also been known as Miss Austin, Mrs. Stowell, Sub-Precinct, said that late Friday night a man and woman who had alighted from a Boulevard car in Forty-second-st, were wrangling and at-tracting a crowd. The woman, whom the officer recognized as Mrs. Scoffeld, told him that her companion, Jamison, had struck her with his fist. Wels took them both to the station-house. Monmouth-st. yesterday afternoon and snatch

Jamison denied the charge of striking the woman, but admitted that they had a scuffe. The woman told the police that Jamison had been systematically robbing her, but she would only make a charge of assault. She began a tale of her alleged wrongs at Jamison's hands, but was told to get witnesses, which she promised to do. Magistrate Simms paroled Jamison until to-morrow afternoon for examination. It was in the yard of the house, then occupied by Mrs. Scoffeld, at Twentieth-st, and Sixth-ave, that Nathaniel T. Hatch, the banker, met his death on May 8, 1888. It was supposed that he fell from the roof of the extension.
